Welcome to Peking University (PKU) "International Young Scholars Geo-Symposium"! Geo-Symposium is targeted on providing a unique academic platform for communication and coordination among pre-career scientists at home and abroad in geology. As a hallmark at PKU, Geo-Symposium enables outstanding scholars to share their cutting-edge research and creative energies with enthusiastic students and professors on PKU campus, which potentially opens up a window for young high-qualified scientists to faculty position applications at PKU.
